The donation given at Judd's Corner's on Tuesday evening for the benefit of Rev. Jas. Riley, who has been in poor health for about a year, proved a successful undertaxing. The meeting was held in the M. E. church in the village, and although the attendance was not large, they came well laden. Mr. Riley is a member of both the Masonic and Oddfellow 'fraternity and representatives of these orders were present and swelled the amount with goodly sums which had been subscribed by the members of these societies. The amount paid Mr. Riley in cash was $120.16, and other gifts of more or less value made. The most magnanimous gift, no doubt, was from Dr. Holcomb, who has attended Mr. Riley during his long illness and looked carefully after his every want. Lis bill amounted to $116 his long illness and looked carefully after his every want. Lis bill amounted to $116 for services and medicine and he generously donated the whole amount.
